Our Tiny-Tots Song

Jesus Loves Me!

1. Jesus loves me! This I know,
For the Bible tells me so;
Little ones to Him belong,
They are weak but He is strong.
Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me!
The Bible tells me so.

3. Jesus loves me! loves me still,
When I'm very weak and ill;
From His shining throne on high,
Comes to watch me where I lie.
Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me!
The Bible tells me so.

2. Jesus loves me! He who died,
Heaven's gate to open wide;
He will wash away my sin,
Let His little child come in.
Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me!
The Bible tells me so.

4. Jesus loves me! He will stay,
Close beside me all the way;
He's prepared a home for me,
And some day His face I'll see.
Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me!
The Bible tells me so.

IN THE BEGINNING - PART 2

Continuing: So, the next day God said, "Let there be air, to make the sky.

And let the sky be between the water on the earth and the water above the sky.”

And it was so. And the earth kept on turning, out of the light into the dark and back to the light again.

And the evening and the morning were the second day.

Then the next day God said, "Let the waters on the earth be gathered together in one place, and let the dry land appear.” And yet there was nothing on the earth but bare ground.

All at once there was dry land, and it rose above the waters.

God called the dry land Earth. And the waters He called Sea. Then God said,

“Let the earth bring forth grass, and plants bearing seed, and fruit trees bearing good fruit.”

All of a sudden, the earth was a garden.

The grass sprang up, and the plants came up, with beautiful flowers on them.

And the trees grew and grew—why, you could see them grow, with branches and little twigs and leaves on them to make shade, and flowers to make fruit. Oh, it was a beautiful garden indeed!

And that was the third day.

Then the earth turned on, away from the daylight into the darkness of the night.

And it went around all the way, until it came to the light again.

And now God said: “Let there be lights in the heavens, a great light to rule the day, and a lesser light to rule the night, and many, many little lights to sprinkle the sky in the night.”

Suddenly there was the sun shining in its might, making the light of day.

And as the earth rolled around into the night, there was the moon to shed its soft light on the earth.

And there were the stars, many, many, many of them, to light up the sky in the night.

And the earth rolled around to the sun and the light again. And that was the fourth day.

and to love mercy,
and to walk humbly with thy God?

What I Have Learned and Ways I Have Grown This Week!

*Before we hear your questions dear ones!
Let's take a few minutes to review what you have read last Sabbath from Part 1 of our Lesson entitled, “Woes on the Pharisees” Part 7
in our study book Desire of Ages!*

Raise your hands dear ones!

The Desire of Ages, p.619

Looking forward, Jesus declared that the impenitence of the Jews and their intolerance of God's servants would be the same in the future as it had been in the past:
{DA 619.3}

“Wherefore, behold,
I send unto you prophets,
and wise men, and scribes:
and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge
in your synagogues, and persecute them
from city to city.”

the Scribes and Pharisees

The Desire of Ages, p.619

Continuing:
Prophets and wise men,
 full of faith and the Holy Ghost,-- Stephen, James, and many others,- would be condemned and slain.
 With hand uplifted to heaven,
 and a divine light enshrouding His person, Christ spoke as a judge to those before Him.
 His voice, that had so often been heard in gentleness and entreaty, was now heard in rebuke
 and condemnation.
 The listeners shuddered.
 Never was the impression made by His words and His look to be effaced. {DA 619.4}

The Desire of Ages, p.619

Christ's indignation was directed against the hypocrisy, the gross sins, by which men were destroying their own souls, deceiving the people and dishonoring God.

In the specious deceptive reasoning of the priests and rulers He discerned the working of satanic agencies. Keen and searching had been His denunciation of sin; but He spoke no words of retaliation. He had a holy wrath against the prince of darkness; but He manifested no irritated temper.

The Desire of Ages, p.619

Continuing:
So the Christian who lives in harmony with God, possessing the sweet attributes of love and mercy,
will feel a righteous indignation against sin;
but he will not be roused by passion to revile those who revile him.
Even in meeting those who are moved by a power from beneath to maintain falsehood, in Christ he will still preserve calmness and self-possession.
{DA 619.5}

Divine pity marked the countenance of the Son of God as He cast one lingering look upon the temple and then upon His hearers. In a voice choked by deep anguish of heart and bitter tears He exclaimed, “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!”

The Desire of Ages, p.620

Continuing:

This is the separation struggle.

In the lamentation of Christ the very heart of God is pouring itself forth.

It is the mysterious farewell of the long-suffering love of the Deity.

{DA 620.1}

Pharisees and Sadducees were alike silenced.

Jesus summoned His disciples, and prepared to leave the temple, not as one defeated and forced from the presence of his adversaries, but as one whose work was accomplished.

He retired a victor from the contest.

{DA 620.2}

John 6:63 (KJV)

It is the spirit that quickeneth;
the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, [they] are spirit, and [they] are life

Psalms 40:7 (KJV)

Then said I, Lo, I come:
in the volume of the book
[it is] written of me,

John 6:35 (KJV)

And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life:
he that cometh to me shall never hunger;
and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

The Desire of Ages, p.620

The gems of truth that fell from Christ's lips on that eventful day were treasured in many hearts. For them new thoughts started into life, new aspirations were awakened, and a new history began. After the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ, these persons came to the front, and fulfilled their divine commission with a wisdom and zeal corresponding to the greatness of the work. Joseph of Arimathaea, That take away the body of Jesus!

The Desire of Ages, p.620

Continuing:

They bore a message that appealed to the hearts of men, weakening the old superstitions that had long dwarfed the lives of thousands.

Before their testimony human theories and philosophies became as idle fables.

Mighty were the results flowing from the words of the Saviour to that wondering, awestruck crowd in the temple at Jerusalem.

{DA 620.3}

John 19:38 (KJV)

Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave [him] leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

The Desire of Ages, p.620

But Israel as a nation had divorced herself from God. The natural branches of the olive tree were broken off. Looking for the last time upon the interior of the temple, Jesus said with mournful pathos, “Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, Ye shall not see Me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord.”
(Next Slide Please)

Continuing: Hitherto He had called the temple His Father's house;
but now, as the Son of God should pass out from those walls, God's presence would be withdrawn forever from the temple built to His glory.
Henceforth its ceremonies
would be meaningless, its services a mockery.
{DA 620.4}

*Let's consider this verse for our

1 Peter 3:15 (KJV)*

1)

My Father, my Mother, I know
I cannot your kindness repay;
But I hope, that, as older I grow,
I shall learn your commands to obey.

3)

I am sorry that ever I should Be naughty and give you a pain,
I hope I shall learn to be good,
And so never grieve you again.

You loved me before I could tell
Who it was that so tenderly smiled;
But now, that I know it so well,
I should be a respectful child.

4)

But, for fear that I ever should dare
From all your commands to depart,
Whenever I’m saying a prayer
I’ll ask for a respectful heart.
